"A really great way to get children engaged in creative writing."

E Keaney, Auchinloch Primary School

"This fitted in really well with both history and literacy - a 'hit' with the children!"

A Moore, West Row Community Primary School

Ancient Adventures is a fun way to engage your pupils with creative writing by challenging them to write a story in just 100 words! This is a great way to encourage pupils to think about sentence structure and vocabulary.

Ancient Adventures lends itself wonderfully to both British and World History topics and there are plenty of free resources to inspire your pupils. The opportunity to be published and win prizes will give your pupils a new purpose and audience for their writing too!

IT'S EASY TO GET INVOLVED...

- Pupils write their history-inspired mini saga, they can use the planning sheet/entry form, A4 paper or type their work. Ensure they include their name and age with their work.
- Send your entries to us, along with the school entry form to:

FREEPOST RSLY-AUJA-RAHY
Young Writers AA
Remus House

- Alternatively, you can upload work at youngwriters.co.uk/uploader or email to: competitions@youngwriters.co.uk
- Ancient Adventures is open all year round, get your entries to us by the end of term to be considered for this term's prizes.

WHAT IS A MINI SAGA?

A mini saga is a story written in 100 words. Using this constraint is great for removing the fear of extended writing, focusing on the structure of a story and vocabulary!
